On behalf of the Organizing Committee of the 23rd Biannual International Congress on Thrombosis organized by the Mediterranean League against Thromboembolic Diseases (MLTD), that will be held 14-17 May, 2014, in Valencia (Spain), it is a pleasure to contact you to inform about this meeting and ask for your kind cooperation.

As you can see in the attached program, outstanding professionals will give lectures on attractive and current topics on Thrombosis, Antithrombotic therapy, Coagulation and Fibrinolysis, Platelets and Vascular Biology.

In addition of your own information we are also sending this letter because, if you deem it appropriate, we would kindly encourage you to spread the scientific program of the MLTD Congress among expert colleagues and members of your association that may be interested. This will also signify an opportunity to establish relations with an active and renovated Mediterranean League that will benefit with the participation of your country in its activities.

I would like to thank you for your effort and commitment in advance.
